Subject: - F.I.R

Respected Sir,

I Suman Singh, Son of Jogender Singh, Residence of Panighata Road, Upper Bagdogra, Bagdogra, Dist:- Darjeeling, Pin Code:- 734014, in the state of West Bengal which comes under your jurisdiction wants to state that as on 18th October 2020, a person named Indrajeet Banabab, residence of Batashi Market, came to know from some of his reliable sources approached me to purchase my Motor Cycle as I had published it for sale through my reliable sources. I had set the consideration value of the vehicle of Rs. 1,40,000 (Rupees One Lakh Fourty Thousand Only).

Thereafter the said person agreed upon my consideration amount and decided to purchase the said Motor Cycle from me at the said consideration amount. Thereafter he paid an advance amount of Rs. 15,000 (Fifteen Thousand Only) and then he took my motor cycle and told me that he would have a test ride of the vehicle but he didn't returned back.

But after half an hour when he didn't returned backed, I tried to call him several times but he didn't answered my call and after some time he started rejecting my calls which made me very much worried and anxious as the vehicle was still registered in my name.

Later on I realized that he had an intention to steal my motor cycle and fraudulently misrepresented himself with an fake intention to purchase the motor cycle. After few days I came to know his residence and further I reached his place to recover my motor cycle but he suppressed my actions and threatened me with dire consciences if I ever returned again to recover my motor cycle.

I am very much scared and threatened by his act as the vehicle is still registered at my name and if by chance anything goes wrong I would be held responsible for the act. Therefore, I request you to please look into this matter and solve it as soon as possible as it could affect me badly in the near future.

THANK YOU
