Dear Sir,

Subject : F.I.R

This is to inform you that on 07th May 2021 at around 1 pm my mother Ayesha Begum, 51 years was working as per her daily schedule at Regulated Market. By profession she is a daily labour and earns her livelihood from "Arats" by sorting vegetables and fruits.

On that date suddenly a vehicle Regn. No. WB-73C/9918 run over my mother legs and the driver tried to escape from the spot, local people intercepted the vehicle and send my mother to Hospital.

She suffered severe injuries and compound fractures in her legs and hips. Siliguri Hospital referred her to better facility as operation was compulsory. She was admitted to Siliguri Nursing Home and at present under medical attention.

I request to make an enquiry of the matter Sir, and compensate the treatment cost incurred by my mother at Siliguri Nursing Home and do the needful as per law, against reckless driving, or driving under the influence of intoxication by the driver. The respective owner the vehicle also denied any proper cooperation and we regret for his callous irresponsible behaviour.

Sir, we belong to a poor family, I'm jobless and not in a position to financially support treatment during this period of pandemic.

Your cooperation his highly solicited and SOS.

Thanking You.

MD. Akhtar
Yours faithfully,

Son of MD. Ismail, Debidanga Purba Champ Sari.
