With reference to the written complaint dated 10/09/2021, in which it was informed to you that some miscreants had had erased the name of our club from the signboard, I beg to inform you that on 11/09/2021, at about 2.30 p.m., while the members of our club are painting the name of our club in the wall of the below schedule land, the above name accused along with few other antisocial, who are well known land grabbers of our locality surrounded us and started using filthy language towards us and also assaulted some of our club members who were present there. The said miscreants also declared that, the event of erasing our club's name from the signboard was done by them and they will do it again if needed, as their main intention was to occupy the said land and if we tried to protest about the same then we shall face dire consequences. Thereafter at the night of 11/09/2021, the said accused
