Sir,

With due respect, I, Haripada Roy, Son of Late Upendra Nath Roy, Currently employed as Librarian at the North Bengal Medical College, would like to inform you that today when I entered in my office at around 10:00 a.m. and turned on the Air Conditioner of my chamber, the Air Conditioner was not functioning, and as such when I checked the Outer unit of the A.C., then I found that the copper wire connecting the Inner unit with the Outer unit was missing. I have searched for the missing wire everywhere, but could not trace it.

This is for your information and necessary action please.

Thanking you,

Yours Faithfully
