when I requested my husband not to beat me mercilessly then he continue his torture upon me and also threatens that if I disclose any matter to my parents then he increase his torture and on threat of my life and to save my child in my womb I become silent and tolerated all torture of her in laws family members with a hope that one day everything will be alright but all are in vain.

8. That one day when I do not tolerate such inhuman torture by in-laws family members I inform the matter to my elder brother namely Altaf Hussain over phone by managing phone and in the month of July 2022 my brother alongwith my uncle namely Md. Mojibul Hoque came to my matrimonial house and rescue me and save me from the hand of my in-laws family members and for the safety of my child and my life I take shelter at my parents house at Natun Para, Jalpaimore, Ward no. 5, P.O. & P.S. – Siligun, Dist- Darjeeling.
9. That thereafter there is several meeting was held for settle the matter but my said in-laws family members become angry and do not ready to stay me at their house.
10. That at present I am 8 month pregnancy and I spend my life in very painful condition due to the heavy assault by above named in-laws family members and on 12-09-2022 I went to my in-laws house for staying there but my husband and other family members restrain to enter into my in-laws house and drove out me from my in-laws house and I become helpless and unable to tolerate the painful days.
11. That my in-laws above named family members are liable for my painful days which I spent in my in-laws house and now my life is in very risk and I become helpless and due my health condition delay in lodging this complain.

So, I therefore request you to kindly to investigate the matter and take necessary strict action against the above named persons and save my life from their hands.

Thanking You.
