On 28/03/24 at 22:15 hrs, I received information from Mr. Sengar that his son was missing. He said that his son had been missing since yesterday morning. He also mentioned that he had been searching for him all day long. He requested me to help him find his son. I informed him that I would do my best to locate his son. I also advised him to file a missing person report with the police station. I further informed him that I would keep him updated on the progress of the investigation. I also assured him that I would take all necessary steps to ensure the safe return of his son.
