MEMO No. 222 / Police

DATED 31-10-2024 //

To
The Office-in-Charge
Maligara Police Station
Maligara, Darjeeling.

Sub: - General Diary for lodging of complaint - reg.

Sir,
The under signed has to lodge a complaint regarding some miscreants activities those are happening since last few days in the Northern part of Garden no. 01. In the last night they have tried to cut the valuable wire fitted in the Transformer of this office and stole a wire coil kept in that transformer room.

For your kind information it may be stated that this type of activities are happening frequently either in the evening or in the late night which are being intimated to your good self after every incidence. Also to be added that any mishap may occur whenever they (miscreants) will be in touch/contact with any electrical parts.

It also may also be brought to your kind notice that this office is not having any surveillance infrastructure and in this circumstances this office is very much worried regarding safety and security of the office premises as well as maintaining the Govt. property. More over I will not go for any court case in this regard.

So, your good self is requested to intervene the matter at your earliest convenience please.

Thanking you with good and favourable anticipation.

Yours faithfully,

Memo No. 222 / Police
