medicine from inside the container. The matter was immediately informed to the consignor namely Sun Pharma via e-mail on 06.01.2025 and thereafter on getting approval from Sun Pharmaceutical Industries Ltd. the consignment was delivered to the destinations and at the time of delivery it could be ascertain that 89 cartons of medicine amounting to Rs.55,01,454.4/- Rupees (Fifty Five Lacs One Thousand Four Hundred Fifty Four and Four Paisa) approximately as per market value were missing from the said consignment. We are anticipating that during this journey from Siliguri to Bangalore some unknown miscreants would have committed this act of theft thereby breaking open the container but the exact place of offence is not known to us and could not be ascertain. It is pertinent to mention here that all precautionary measures such as GPS fitted in the vehicle as well as GPS were kept open in the driver's mobile phone also.

Under these circumstances I would like you take appropriate steps in this matter and book the above mentioned persons under the suitable provisions of law.
