us, consequencing that my wife got heavily injured on her person and her head, I was also injured, after that local people came and extend their hand in order to save us. When the driver of that above mentioned car sees the local people to gather there he fled away with his car. After that local people help us to contact with my daughter and thereafter we took treatment from North Bengal Neuro Centre.

It is pertinent to mentioned here that when the accident took place for his rash driving, the driver was drunk and despite of helping he get off the car and threatened us with dire consequences, when he saw the local people he fled away from there.

There for it is my humble request to your good office that kindly ensure your legal assistance to me in order to get the accused punished through the proper investigation and obliged.

Thanking you,
M. D. Dey
